the aristotelian thomist tradition has long had an enduring place in the history of western philosophy so much so in fact that it is referred to as the perennial tradition written specifically for those who are in formation for service in the church this essential text examines the metaphysics epistemology and ethics associated with the aristotelian thomist tradition and brings its insights into conversation with other philosophical perspectives the text s summary of philosophy's history and more recent developments in Thomistic thought provide useful context as well. Although written for those who are new to the academic discipline of philosophy, this text does not shy away from some of its thorniest issues. It will thus be of value not just in the classroom but as a much needed resource for those who hope to labor in the vineyard of pastoral service.

The founder of the school of logical positivism looks back on twentieth century western philosophy idiosyncratically stressing those developments and figures with which he is most in sympathy.

This collection features fourteen original essays divided into three thematic sections which explore the work of Wilfrid Sellars in relation to other twentieth century thinkers. Section I analyzes Sellars's thought in light of his influential predecessors namely Ludwig Wittgenstein, Rudolf Carnap, C. I. Lewis, Richard Hönigswald, John Cook Wilson, and Kazimierz Ajdukiewicz. The second group of essays explores from different perspectives Sellars's place within the analytic tradition including the extent of his identification with analytic Kantianism and analytic pragmatism. The book's final section extracts some of the most significant lessons Sellars's work has to offer for contemporary philosophy. These chapters address his views on inference, his views on truth and its connection to recent discussions about truth relativism and truth pluralism, his conception of self knowledge and his theory of perceptual experience.

This work is a two division study of twentieth century philosophies of history in Europe. Fields engaged in the study are transcendental philosophy, speculative metaphysics, theology, historiographical theory, and intellectual history. The main question concerns the historical finitude of history and its temporal horizon. The work explores the unsolved consequences of G. W. F. Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit (1807) and Martin Heidegger's Being and Time (1927) in twentieth century German and French philosophies of history.
